

PARTICIPANTS NEEDED FOR

A LARGE SCALE PERFORMANCE

The 'UNTITLED' performance is a new JocJonJosch work to be exhibited as part of the collective's solo exhibition for the Manor Prize 2013 in the Valais Art Museum, Sion later this year.

JocJonJosch will direct naked participants to become part of a closed, yet living, organism that will transmute in the gallery space over a period of time. In doing so the collective hope to frame ideas of the 'search' in the context of the human condition, generating palpability from what is typically intangible.

The performances will take place from Friday the 29th of November to Sunday 1st of December.

The performance take place at:
Musée d'art du Valais, Sion
Kunstmuseum Wallis, Sitten
Valais Art Museum, Sion
Place de la Majorie 15
CH - 1950 Sion

To find out more about the project. Please forward any question to Jonathan Brantschen.

jonathan@jocjonjosch.com
www.jocjonjosch.com