We welcome the

London WNBR 2012

NAG supporters to meet up 2.30pm just inside
The Queens Gate, Hyde Park, LONDON
(before the ride assembles at Wellington Arch nearby)

The London WNBR is on SATURDAY 9th JUNE 2012

The London ride is about raising awareness of issues such as safety of cyclists on the road, reducing oil dependence and saving the planet. You don't have to be naked! The theme is "as bare as you dare" If you want to dress up, dress down or strip off to the bare bones, you are most welcome.

London WNBR has an 8-mile route through central London. It starts from Wellington Arch - at 3.30pm - and returns there at about 5.30pm.

NAG had hoped to organise a 'feeder ride' this year - from Hampstead Heath - to join the main LONDON WNBR assembled start at Wellington Arch. Sadly, this was not possible for 2012 – but for 2013? Contact NAG through naturistactiongroup.org

You can also join us on Sunday 10 June 2012, when NAG supporters will be at the Bristol Naked Bike Ride
