

Activities in London this summer

June 2016

Saturday 11

London WNBK: with six start points. Details of this large afternoon event can be found through their information site at wiki.worldnakedbikeride.org › Home › List of rides and start point facebook pages.

Volunteers are needed to help with marshalling and stewarding. If you can assist please contact Harvey on windbag96@yahoo.co.uk

Sunday 12

Open Day: At Oakwood Sun Club (near Romford) more Information at www.oakwoodsunclub.co.uk. You must phone in advance for access details, and contact Bob on mobile phone 07960 109041.

Saturday 25

Naturist picnic: We will repeat the small successful 2015 afternoon gathering in a large London open space. Naturists to bring their own picnic items.

For further details contact Harvey on windbag96@yahoo.co.uk. A phone number will be given to intending participants, to check on the morning if the weather looks doubtful.

Sunday 26

Naturist picnic: Wet weather alternative. If the naturist picnic is not possible we may be able to hold a small indoor naturist gathering on this date in north London. For details contact John at john.paine@talktalk.net.

July 2016

Saturday 2

NAG London meeting: Our next regular meeting to review and plan activities, is 2.00pm at McGlynn's Free House, Whidbourne Street in Kings Cross. We could visit a London naturist facility afterwards? Contact John at john.paine@talktalk.net.

August 2016

Saturday 13

London Bodypainting Day: Andy Golub, a New York artist, is expecting to lead a small team using body paints on live naked models in a popular space.

Use of a central London location is now under discussion. For details, and how to be a volunteer model, contact John at john.paine@talktalk.net.

September 2016

Wednesday 21

London National City Park: The promoters are holding an evening event (details to be released later). NAG has been very actively promoting the need for naturism to be accepted as a healthy outdoor activity within London's green spaces. Details of our NAG work are on this website. See www.nationalparkcity.london for more information on the concept.

Women naturists

As well as women's involvement in activities mentioned above, NAG has been developing a plan for women to make group visits to the Ladies Pond at Hampstead Heath. Female naturists should contact NAG via this website for information on possible dates.

Details are under discussion for another photo shoot to be held at Hampstead Heath. Naturists wanting to participate should register their interest to be given more details, through this NAG website.

Initial discussions for a London naturist club to host a photo shoot were, sadly, not successful.
